Creighton News

Mr. and Mrs. Sells and baby of Tollock drove over in their car Saturday to visit the Bixby and Mackey families until Monday, when they returned to their home, laden with blackberries and apricots of the Bixby-Mackey production.

Mr. Sebringhaus returned Wednesday morning from an eight day's visit to Los Angeles and vicinity, refreshed in body and mind and enthusiastic over his visits to the great Smith meetings with their soul inspiring music and heart searching sermons. Mr. Sebringhaus also visited the Torrey Bible Institute while there and purchased some very helpful books. His purchases, one of which he will use in the church music at Creighton, he being a musician of no mean repute, and the other being one of the instruments which he plays beautifully.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Elder and daughter, Mrs. E. Gertrude Dorris, came out from town Friday to call on Bright Elder who is still confined to his bed with typhoid fever. The Sunday school picnic at the Sebringhaus home, Thursday brought out a large crowd, a beautiful dinner and a general good time. The boys of Mr. Wilson's class did a rushing business with their refreshment stand all day until in the evening there was nothing left to sell but some chewing gum and popcorn. After the dinner had settled a little, the races and games began and the spectators were convulsed with laughter many times. The men's sack race was won by Mr. Foot as was also the men's shoe race and footrace, while Mrs. Foot won the woman's foot race. Why not? Just consider their name. James Forman won the boy's sack race, while Elsie Moore won those of the young ladies. Elsie Cagle won the young girls' foot race and Ethel Proyes that of the smaller girls. In the young ladies' potato races Miss Ruby Midrow and Miss Elizabeth Wilson were the winners. After this strenuous exercise music, both instrumental and vocal, were enjoyed and then the exciting baseball game began. The married men played against the single men and if you will believe it, the married men beat. But by just enough to keep it from being a tie. But it is certainly true that though the boys were beaten, they were not nearly as sore the next day as their opponents were. The picnic lasted until after ten in the evening, many of the married people and children going home in the late afternoon and others coming who could not get off during the day. A beautiful supper was disposed of and then more games and music, until even the most energetic confessed themselves tired and all went home happy. The beach bonnets made an instant hit and several dollars were added to the Ladies Aid treasury in consequence.

The bond election at the school house Saturday is expected to bring out every person who has a right to vote. There is some dissatisfaction expressed that in the case of community property only the one can vote whose name appears on this year's tax receipt instead of this particular law recognizing that the husband and wife are one. Two or three of our men whose business takes them to the courthouse have agreed to look into this matter and see if there may not be a mistaken understanding on this point.

Wenden Notes

Mrs. C. P. Uhler is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Moss, of the Hotel Wenden.

J. E. Matteson entertained Hon. Sidney P. Osborn, secretary of state, Messrs. Sydnor, Douglas and Kleindier at dinner Wednesday evening. The Misses Morton gave a picnic party and dinner dance Wednesday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Gertrude Hamilton. Miss Hamilton will soon leave for her home in Spencer to spend the summer and in the fall will return to Wenden and take up the third year of school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wentworth, of Congress Junction, have moved to the Cunningham Pass, where Mr. Wentworth is interested in mining. Miss Ethel Price and little Billy will arrive home Sunday from a two weeks' visit in Parker.

C. L. Wilson and B. L. Walcott arrived Tuesday from Wickenburg and will work at Cunningham Pass.

Mrs. Rhoda Hatch made a business trip to Bouse Thursday, returning Saturday.

Master Edgar Agnew, of San Diego, Cal., has come to spend the summer with Mrs. Mary E. Crowder.

Mrs. E. C. Harrington left Sunday evening for Los Angeles to spend the summer.

Mr. Galgino Gallo and family, of Jerome, arrived Saturday to make their home in Wenden. They are here in the interest of the New Mundo Mining company.

R. J. Perez left Sunday for Jerome. Mrs. T. J. Nagle left Tuesday evening for Los Angeles to visit her sister.

WOMEN STRONG FOR EXTENSION SCHOOL

Farmers and their wives do not like to adopt new methods without first being "shown" that they are really practical. So the object of the work conducted by the University of Arizona Agricultural Extension Service is to demonstrate ways of increasing the farm income or of making it go further. This is being done largely through persons who will agree to put into practice on their farms or in their homes, methods which have proven a success elsewhere. These demonstrators, as they are called, serve to show their neighbors by actual deeds (instead of words, that these methods, undoubted and carried out under the advice of an expert, pay. The following enthusiastic letter, which was recently received by Mrs. Edith C. Salisbury, Home Economics Specialist, from one of her demonstrators, indicates that the seed which she has been sowing has begun to take root.

"My Dear Mrs. Salisbury: I'm going to just tell you that my account keeping was not done as it should have been done the first month, last month was a little better, and this month promises to be correct. That I am learning a great deal about how I spend my income need not be dwelt upon, but I am. And Mrs. Salisbury, if you will kindly tell me how I may obtain 12 of the account blanks I shall invest and watch for a year, with much interest. Also will you tell me where I can buy the mixing spoons such as you had while here?"

"I wonder if you know how much we in this neighborhood respect you and your work, and how much interest you 'stirred up' in some of us and 'some of us' needed a 'stirring up'."

GIRLS' CANNING SCHOOL AT YUMA

A canning school for the girls belonging to the canning clubs in the Yuma Valley was a new feature of the work of the State Club Leader, Mr. L. S. Parke, in his field work during May. The girls furnished jars, sugar, fruit, vegetables, etc., and were kept busy for an entire day, careful records of labor, cost, etc., being kept. The girls were very enthusiastic over their work and were especially interested in Mr. Parke's canning outfits. At noon a picnic lunch was served which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Among the boys considerable interest is being taken in the pig club contests, and pure bred registered pigs have been secured by five of the members.

Wenden visitor this week.

George Bray left this morning for Mayer, Ariz., to spend the summer. A. W. Sydnor, of Globe, and Sidney P. Osborn, secretary of state, were guests of J. E. Kleindier the past week.

Mr. Hoffhaur, of Salome, was in town Friday on business.

Ernest Douglas, of the Arizona News Bureau, Phoenix, was in the district last week gathering data regarding mining properties for use in a special article that is to appear in a syndicate of Arizona papers.

GIRLS! CLEAN AND BEAUTIFY HAIR NO DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Stop washing hair! Try this! Makes hair glossy, soft and abundant.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance. Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

LODGE LORE

Knights of Pythias

We are glad to learn that Knight Opendorff is out and at work again. We learn that Knight J. W. Foss is in bad health and action being taken for relief. Knight James A. Matthews is still sick. Committee on Memorial Day Sunday, 21st, report very successful and Knight Fred Cleveland was extended a vote of thanks for his very appropriate talk at this service.

Knights W. D. Smith and Burt Curtis were duly elected to membership in the lodge.

Committee on the drafting of a letter of condolence on the death of the mother of Brother Claude Cisney report as follows:

"Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call from all earthly care the late Mrs. Cisney, beloved mother of our esteemed brother, Claude W. Cisney. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, members of Phoenix Lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, bowing in submission to the divine will, shall ever cherish a loving thought of a departed home-loving mother.

"That we extend to the sorrowing son and brother and other relatives and friends all friendship and fraternal spirit and our heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of bereavement."

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her son, our brother, Claude W. Cisney, and other relatives, and one copy spread upon the minutes of Phoenix Lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, and made a record thereof.

Above report accepted and committee discharged with vote of thanks. Entertainment committee discussed at length the proposed entertainment on or about June 12.

Members and visitors are notified that we will put on rank of page on next Friday night, and also election of officers will be held. All try and manage to be present at this time, as we are assured of an interesting meeting.

Woodmen of the World

Phoenix Camp No. 5, Woodmen of the World is thriving, notwithstanding the approaching summer season and from present indications there will be, as there was last year, continuous additions to the camp all during the summer. At each meeting there have been from three to ten applications received. At a recent meeting Sovereign Connolly from Mesa, brought a bunch of splendid recruits to be worked over by the Phoenix bunch and from expressions heard, the Mesa boys got all they paid for. Come again

Join we are glad to have you and yours among us. We are glad to see the spirit of hospitality and courtesy that each camp is ready and willing to extend to the other. We will come occasionally and eat your pie and you can return the visit and eat our cake.

Whatever dissatisfaction and disappointment there have been as a result of the team contest in the army in April, has been wholly eradicated, and the usual fraternal feeling now prevails. This should move for a greater result in Phoenix Camp in the near future. For the past six months there have been, almost continuously, some differences of opinion of sentiment, or some disappointments, that have prevented the development of that spirit of co-operation which is always necessary to make success, yet despite it all there has been valuable work done and continuous additions of splendid Woodman material.

Sovereign Stewart, our efficient and good natured state manager, has gone into his big field of endeavor to keep the wheels of progress moving, and before the summer is over, he expects one of the grandest movements for Woodcraft in this state and New Mexico that has ever developed. A male quartet consisting of four brothers are to accompany Sovereign Stewart, and every camp within his jurisdiction is to be visited. They will travel overland in a car well advertised with flags flying and banners waving. With such a movement for the honoring of the splendid beneficence of Woodcraft there should be a great awakening within our institution, and Sovereign Stewart is to be highly commended for his ability in promulgating and carrying out such a splendid idea.

Sovereign Brown, although finding in our camp a rather unfavorable situation, has proceeded to do things, and his earnest labors are meeting with pronounced success. When Phoenix Camp has done away with all its differences and can live its undivided life to Sovereign Brown, then, and only then, will there be another avalanche of applications such as there was a year ago, but we will come to it, and a little patience indulged by Sovereign Brown will win.

The Camp has missed the pleasure of the presence of Sovereign Wiley for a meeting or two, but it is always known when Sovereign Wiley is not in attendance at the Camp meetings there is something seriously wrong. In this instance there was an optical operation which necessitated Sovereign Wiley remaining at his home for a short period.

Had we a hundred or more as faithful as Sovereign Wiley, there would be no doubt of the onward movement of Phoenix Camp.

The splendid memorial and unveiling exercises held last Sunday, a week, have left a splendid impression upon all who attended, and next year there will be a greater effort to have a larger meeting, and at a more opportune time for this season of the year the necessary flowers for memorial and unveiling are difficult to secure, but could easily and nicely be secured at the time which by special dispensation we are permitted to hold such services to-wit, the third Sunday in April.

Phoenix Camp at this time is particularly fortunate in having very little of illness among Woodmen. During the winter season the officers and sick committee give much of their time and effort in aiding and cheering sick Sovereigns, and those who are prone to criticism should remember that there are many to whom attention should be given, and few to render such kindly services. Those who are in need of our sunshine come here for their betterment, and our boys smilingly and cheerfully give of their time and of their labor to lighten the burdens of the afflicted, yet there is a limit to one's time and endurance. The labor of love done by the members of the team in preparing and decorating the graves of our fallen Sovereigns on memorial day should convince all of the ennobling sentiment taught by Woodcraft. It teaches a sentiment of reverence for the dead and courtesy and kindness for the living.

Knights of Columbus

Twelve second degree members were added at the initiation last Tuesday evening, and the prospect is now bright for the third degree early in the fall with a class of thirty or more. Grand Knight Peter Ryan and Chancellor W. P. Volta were the leading members of the degree team, and the candidates were much impressed by their work. At present eight candidates are ready for the first degree, and will be taken into Marcos de Niza council in the near future. Present indications are that the membership will be greatly increased by the end of the present year.

During June, July and August, Marcos de Niza council will hold monthly meetings on the fourth Tuesday of the month. This should not be used as an excuse to remain away from meetings or to relax in the campaign for candidates. If a large number of applications are obtained during the next three months it will insure an exceptionally busy winter. Local Knights of Columbus are much interested in the movement started by the state council session in Tucson to preserve the old landmarks in Arizona, particularly the missions. Several of these are in danger of being lost unless action is taken. Efforts will be made to interest the federal government in the preservation of these historic ruins in order that they may remain for the instruction of future generations.

In deference to the request of the G. A. R. the picnic proposed by the knights for May 30th has been cancelled. It is probable that arrangements will be made for an outing in the near future. It is proposed to have music, literary numbers and sports for the young folks.

will leave shortly for Los Angeles, where he plans to make his home. Few members are willing to believe that Dan will find it possible to live anywhere but in the Salt River valley, and he is expected to return shortly.

Brother Sidney J. Gassman is now located in Flagstaff, where he will spend the summer assisting in the pavement of the principal streets of that city. Brother Gassman will find a live crowd of knights in the Skylight Club.

Lecturer P. C. Gettins is promising something novel in the way of social sessions for the summer period. Among the leading features will be an abundance of fresh air, ice water and cool breezes. He is now busy planning some outdoor stunts.
